1. In May 1949, prospective delegates to an All Inner Mongolia Conference received notification that such a conference would be held at Pailingmiao, Ulanhab League*, on 1 July 1949.

2. The notification, sent by the Preparatory Committee of the All Inner Mongolia Conference, contained the following statement with regard to the purpose of the meeting:

"Realizing that without unification the Mongol race will soon become extinct, the All Inner Mongolia Conference is convened in order to discuss the future of the four million** Mongol people. Thus, it is requested that the recipient of this notification should overcome whatever difficulties may arise and be present at the Conference."

The notifications were to serve as certificates that the bearers had been selected as delegates to the Conference, and were to be submitted to the Secretariat on arrival at the Conference. Delegates who were unable to attend the Conference were required to destroy their notifications.

3. The following persons were to be delegates to the All Inner Mongolia Conference***:

4. [ ] this conference [ ] was to be neither pro-Communist nor pro-Kuomintang in character.

- 25X1 * [ ] Comment. Pailingmiao seems an unlikely place for the conference, since it is in the territory of Governor TUNG Chi-wu, who may surrender to the Communists at any time.
- 25X1 ** [ ] Comment. This figure is high. Altogether there are probably not more than three million Mongols, half of whom are Inner Mongolians.
- 25X1 *** [ ] Comment. All these delegates are members of the Legislative Yuan. LI Yung-hsin and HSU Chan-kuei, opponents of the Racial Principle, were probably invited for reasons of prestige and to give balance to the ideology represented at the conference.
